Notes/Narratives

NARRATIVE

Synopsis: On 8/22/11 at approximately 1130 hours, (OF1) Charles Morris was arrested for driving with a suspended license following a traffic stop at Warner and 132nd Street.

Narrative: In 8/22/11 at approximately 1112 hours, I was dispatched to the listed location reference a disorderly conduct situation. The caller, Jason Ready, indicated he saw a male subject later identified as Charles Morris, peering through a neighbor's side window. Jason said he made contact with Charles who became aggressive and argumentative. Jason said Charles was swearing at him and threatening to physically assault him. While on the phone with police, Jason said Charles was leaving the area in a red Chevy truck bearing an Arizona license plate of [REDACTED]

I arrived in the area a short time later and observed the red Chevy preparing to make a left hand turn from Magic Canyon onto Warner Road heading east. Once the vehicle conducted this turn I initiated a traffic stop. The truck stopped at Warner and 132nd Street. Once the truck stopped I made contact with the adult driver Charles Morris. Charles was accompanied by his girlfriend Sheri Kuhl. I asked Charles to exit the vehicle and conducted a pat search ensuring no weapons were present. As I did this Sheri exited the vehicle and asked why I stopped them. Charles told Sheri he knows why I stopped them. I then asked Charles to tell me what happened.

Charles told me him and his girlfriend work for the bank. He said they are given a list of foreclosed homes from the bank and check these homes to see if it is still occupied or unoccupied. Charles said the bank pays them 3 dollars for each house they check. This information was confirmed by Sheri who had the list of homes and a bank ID.

Charles went on to tell me he was just at a foreclosed home on Tumbleweed Street and was looking through a side window to see if it was occupied. While doing this, Charles said a next door neighbor came over and asked what he was doing. Charles said he explained who he was and why he was there. Charles said this neighbor asked to see his bank ID. Charles informed the man he didn't have one with him. Charles said the man challenged him and asked how he is supposed to know he is telling the truth. Charles said he told the man he won't know. Charles went on to tell me that the neighbor later identified as Jason Ready, was vulgar and very aggressive. Charles said he was trying to leave he asked Jason if he knew if anyone lived in the house or if they had moved out. Charles said Jason continued yelling at him and said he wasn't telling him anything since he can't prove who he is. Charles said as Jason continued insulting him, he turned and began yelling profanity back at him. The two then continued arguing and using profanity towards each other. At one point, Charles said Jason threatened to beat him up and told him he was going to kick his ass. Charles said this was when he got back into the vehicle and left.

I next spoke with Sheri who provided the same account. Sheri also added the other man's wife was in the driveway yelling at them. She said Jason called them Apache Junction white trash and was threatening to assault them.

I next made contact with Officer Castronova who was with Jason and his wife. Officer Castronova told me Jason was telling her Charles was the aggressor and was using profanity at him. Jason's wife also indicated Sheri was yelling at her and calling them names. No independent witnesses were located.

Notes/Narratives

After interviewing all individuals they were asked if they wanted to press charges for disorderly conduct. All involved parties declined prosecution. Witness statements were obtained by all parties involved. These statements were placed into evidence.

While talking with Charles, I conducted a license/warrants check on him and Sheri. I was advised Charles has a suspended license and should not be driving. I made contact with Charles and asked him why his license was suspended. Charles said he knew his license was restricted from a previous reckless driving case but wasn't aware it was suspended. I records check showed Charles was issued a restricted license in April of 2011. IN July 2011, Charles was sent notice of his license being suspended for point's accumulation. I advised Charles of this and asked if he received any other tickets. Charles said he was given a speeding ticket which put his points over the allowed amount. He then said he was told by the courts that the MVD was not using a point system anymore so he wasn't too concerned about the speeding ticket.

As I advised Charles and Sheri I would be towing the vehicle, Sheri told me Charles needs this vehicle as he drives her to all the houses they check. Sheri also said Charles was previously pulled over by Gilbert Police. She said the officer called his supervisor and allowed her to drive the truck away. I informed Sheri I would not be making any phone calls and would be towing the truck. I advised Sheri how she would get the truck out early and issued a 28-3511 pamphlet.

Charles was issued a criminal citation for driving suspended as well as a fingerprint notice. He was released at the scene.

Conclusion: On 8/22/11 at approximately 1130 hours, (OF1) Charles Morris was arrested for driving with a suspended license following a traffic stop at Warner and 132nd Street.

Charles was issued a criminal citation for driving suspended. He was cited into the Gilbert Municipal court. His vehicle was towed per ARS 28-3511. No other criminal charges are being submitted as no one wished to aid in prosecution for disorderly conduct.

On 08-25-2011, at 0650 hours, I administered a 3511 early release hearing reference this case. Sheri Kuhl, the new owner of the vehicle that was towed, did not have valid proof that she was the owner of the vehicle at the time of the tow. Sheri presented a vehicle title that was changed into her name on 08-22-2011, which is the same date of impoundment; however, Sheri did not provide a front and back copy of the previous title to possibly prove that she was actually the RO before the vehicle was towed. She also presented the new annual registration that was just issued on 08-24-2011. When I saw the recent title date, I asked Sheri what changes she made to the title and she said that she had just changed the title into her name. I then explained to her that if she was not the owner at the time of the impoundment, then she would not be eligible for an early release of the vehicle (before the end of the 30 day impoundment period), but I inquired if the driver and previous RO, Charles Clifford Morris, who was also present, was eligible. Charles first informed me that his license was restricted then he said suspended, and finally said that it was revoked when I asked if he could get his license reinstated. Charles also said that he is not married, but that he and Sheri are currently engaged to be married. When I said that Charles is also ineligible for an early release, Sheri became upset. She claimed that the officer specifically pulled her aside and said "I am not supposed to tell you this, but if you go right now to MVD and change the title into your name, you can get the vehicle out within 2 days." I stated that I have no knowledge of anything that was said to her by the officer, but I once again stated that she is not eligible for an early release. She then claimed that the lady who scheduled her also said the same thing and also told her to bring a notarized Bill of Sale.

FYI: Per the 3511 Tow Hearing Office Assistant, Sue Schubert, and her call notes, Sue only told her to bring the front and back copy of the title and the Bill of Sale only after Sheri already claimed to have been the owner of the vehicle before it was towed and already have that proof in response to Sue questioning if she was the owner when the vehicle was towed since the DR did not indicate that she was the RO. Per Sue and her notes, she did not tell Sheri to change the title or manufacture a Bill of Sale, but only told her those items were required after Sheri informed Sue that she was the RO prior to the vehicle being impounded.

I spoke with Tow Hearing Supervisor, Danny Fisher, regarding the officer possibly misinforming Sheri and getting his contact info for her to speak with him and for Danny to follow up with the officer about what was said. We also looked over a handwritten, notarized Bill of Sale that Sheri had, which stated that Charlie Morris sold his vehicle to Sheri Kuhl on May 1st 2011 for $2500.00; however, the notary, Deborah A. Nalley, did not complete an Affirmation or date when she notarized the document. Per our standards and Danny Fisher, this document is not proof that Sheri was the owner of the vehicle at the time of the tow; therefore, I still could not release the vehicle early to Sheri. And despite her claims of the officer advising her to change the title so she would get an early release, which as supervisor, Danny will look into; she is still not eligible for an early release. Furthermore, after reading the call notes, it seemed that Sheri wasn't fully telling the truth and our suspicions about the Bill of Sale being forged or doctored increased. In addition, when she scheduled her appointment, she was informed that only an owner at the time of the tow is possibly eligible for an early release, making her aware of the law and rules. After Sue inquired about Sheri being the RO at the time, she asked what proof she had, and it is Sheri who then possibly created a Bill of Sale as "proof" that she owned the vehicle at the time it was towed since she would not be able to provide a front and back copy of the title showing such.

I returned to the lobby and explained to Sheri that we cannot accept her Bill of Sale and I reiterated that she would have to wait the full 30 days before I could release the vehicle to her. Sheri became increasingly upset complaining and arguing with me to the point that Danny Fisher interceded and advised Sheri that because she was not the owner of the vehicle at the time of the tow, she is not eligible for an early release. He also informed her that he will not accept her bill of sale and she would have to wait the full 30th days. Per Danny, I rescheduled Sheri for Wednesday, September 21, 2011, at 1200 noon, which is after the 30 day hold expires. I also gave Sheri Sergeant's (Sanger) info after she wanted to complain and Danny directed that she could do that with the officer's supervisor. Even after Sheri was rescheduled and Danny had already left, she continued to vent to me about how she would not make up what the officer told her to do and that it is all his (the officer's) fault for giving her "hope." She said that she is going to lose her job now because of him and that it was so wrong of him. She further stated that she wanted to bring charges up on him and take him to court. She said that she will do whatever she can to pursue this and at the very least, she should be compensated for the cost associated with changing the title and getting new registration, etc. I repeated her new appointment time when she asked if she could bring in the front and back copy of the title to get the vehicle out sooner. I clearly told her that she could return later today with a front and back copy of the title that is stamped by the MVD for my supervisor to look at to determine if she can get an early release, but I cannot guarantee that she will be granted one. Sheri said that she had too much to do today and mentioned the MVD being too far. Sheri knows to call when she gets the requested document and she added that she will also bring a copy of the page in the notary log that will show the date it was notarized. I did not comment on this, as I did not request this from her nor would it be accepted proof of anything.

Sheri initially claimed that the title was signed over to her prior to the date of the tow, but now stated that she only changed the title because the officer told her to; otherwise, she would have never changed it. In addition, she was told to bring a front and back copy of the title when Sue scheduled her hearing, yet she did not bring it with her as required and requested. Both her and Charlie claimed that there was no way to bring in a copy of the previous title because it was shredded by the MVD/ Title company, but that is completely false: the MVD does not shred titles, at least 3rd party MVD's don't they send them to the main MVD to be put on film. Furthermore, we contacted MVD Tech Support at 0808am and were forwarded to Diane who deals with 3rd Party MVD matters. At 0843 hours, Diane who had just received a faxed copy of the previous title, before it was changed on 08-22-2011, informed us that Charlie Morris's signature on the back on the previous title was witnessed by the 3rd Party MVD on 08-22-2011, which is the date that the vehicle was towed and not the supposed sale date of 05/01/2011 as Sheri stated and as what was written on the Bill of Sale.

Sheri stated that the truck is and always was her vehicle. She said that she purchased the vehicle but her boyfriend, Charlie Morris, put it in his name. However, it occurred to her that if Charlie ever leaves her then he could take the vehicle with him; therefore, she had him write a "Bill of Sale." This is peculiar since the verbiage in the Bill of Sale states that Charlie Morris sold his vehicle to Sheri Kuhl on May 1st 2011 for $2500.00, rather than saying something to the effect of Charlie transferring ownership and/or mentioning that Sheri was the actual owner of the vehicle since the time of purchase, which caused me to question the validity of the Bill of Sale.

On 09-27-2011, at 0929 hours, I administered a 3511 standard release hearing reference this case. Sheri D. Kuhl, the owner of the vehicle that was towed, presented a valid Arizona Driver`s License, valid registration for the vehicle, valid insurance for the vehicle, and presented proof of ownership for the vehicle via the title. The hold on the vehicle has expired. I released the vehicle as per ARS 28-3511 to Sheri. I collected the $100.00 hearing fee and attached the release paperwork to this report
